

I am writing about Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election. Since Sinclair uses public airways free of charge, I think they are obliged to present a fair news broadcast. That would mean at least offering Sen. Kerry a chance to respond to the film, "Stolen Honor." Many veterans of combat in Vietnam and other patriotic citizens challenged the morality and legality of that war, including church leaders.

The film is not a "news" story, but is political propaganda for the Republicans. This is very blatant, especially when forced upon affiliates.

Thank you.
